Interzum back again at last! And the excitement at Hettich too could hardly be greater. The fittings manufacturer is all fired up to present its innovations from May 9 - 12, inviting the trade to see Hettich's World in hall 8.1, booth C31/B40. Even now, Hettich has activated a landing page covering all aspects of the event. This is where interested trade visitors can now get free tickets for their visit to the show.

The excitement is mounting because Hettich will once again be celebrating product debuts at Interzum 2023. Just this much can be said right now: Cologne will be giving visitors a whole new way of experiencing Hettich, letting everyone discover magical furnishing solutions for kitchens and bathrooms, living space and bedrooms as well as workplaces and outdoor living. A dedicated display area on Hettich's booth will be showing the industry a very special highlight. Tomorrow's assembly machinery can also be witnessed in action. Showcasing innovations and customized service offerings for 2023, Hettich is presenting itself as a leading partner who thinks across the board for the furniture industry, fabricators and appliance manufacturers. "It's all in Hettich".

And this too is all part of Hettich's visitor friendly service: showgoers can now get their personal voucher code at <https://interzum.hettich.com>, giving them free admission to Interzum in Cologne. This voucher promotion from Hettich is on until May 12. The vast range of information, ideas and suggestions on the landing page won't fail to whet your appetite for Interzum
