Design to fall in love with

"Character! That's important to me at home too, in my furniture."

For impressive results, exacting design concepts can only be created with innovative, perfected technology: purist, handleless furniture design ... large-surface cabinet fronts with precision, hairline reveals ... high-performance working components hidden from view once they are installed. Aesthetic form is a treat for the eye – and for the soul.

Enjoy comfort

For a place to feel more at home in

.....
"Living somewhere that make life easy and convenient is really cool."

Take pleasure in cabinet doors that open to a wide angle and close in virtual silence. Find delight in drawers that silently glide in and out. And come to appreciate storage space that's easy to reach. All this can be done with Hettich. With fascinating technology for furniture. Because convenience, ergonomics and well-being shouldn't be a luxury.

More storage space –
more free space!

*"More storage space
also means: a tidier, calmer environment."*

Hettich fitting solutions let you create and utilise every last inch of storage space. For storing household items hidden from view yet in easy reach. Giving your rooms clever structure and easily keeping everything in its place. The result is a new style of home living: space conscious, structured, uncluttered.

Differentiating

You want to impress and stand apart from the competition? Offer furniture in a wide range of designs and configurations? Meet customers' demands with individually tailored solutions? And all involving the least possible cost and effort in production and logistics?

In this case, the Hettich platform concept is just made for you. Its system based product diversity lets you differentiate your furniture range in a variety ways, with ease and extremely cost-effectively. Because your production processes remain unchanged.

It's as efficient as this. With Hettich.

Making it easy

With Hettich as your partner, you have it easier: in planning, in production, during assembly and installation. Because we provide you with support and inspiration in all phases of your value adding process: with ideas books and trend reports. With Hettich Plan for your planning and design. With configurators for visualising design options.

Our e-services make ordering easier for you too. And assembly and installation on site? Largely without tools and intuitively. It's as easy as this. With Hettich.
